OF THE LATE
HENRY WHITE, ESQ. J.P. D.L. F.S.A. &c.
(of 30, Queen's Gate, W.)
1892.

 The above three Antiphonarii are evidently the work of the same scribes and miniaturists, and were probably written in the end of the XIVth and beginning of the XVth century. The bindings of the three volumes, which are XVIth century, are uniform, and lettered on the back "LIBRO CORALI DEL CANTO AMBROSIANO," (260) 755.

537 —— Antiphonarium Diurnum Amrosianum Mediolanum. Written in red and black, large gothic characters, on 216 leaves of vellum, with musical notation, first page with elaborate border, shield of arms, etc., in colors and gold, and 27 large illuminated initials, 22 of which contain miniatures of Saints, religious allegory, etc., the remainder of the initials done in red and blue.
[Italian, XVth Century]
Royal folio, old Italian red morocco, blind tooled.
